From the Honorary Priest

Dear Friends

As this month's edition of this magazine drops through your letter box we will be about to celebrate (or have just celebrated) the great season of the Christian year recalling anew the love of God, demonstrated in the life, death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ and the new life He gives us. We hope that you may have been uplifted during this time.

And some time after Easter within our group of churches we will be looking forward to new developments as we embark on the process of finding our next Rector. The seven Parochial Church Councils have cooperated in compiling the "Benefice Profile and Statement of Needs" (a fairly full description of the seven parishes and the Ecclesiastical equivalent of a person specification), and the advert that will appear in the Church Times.

Those writing the profile and advert have managed to avoid the pitfall of wanting a super saint of the type that was described in a magazine circulated, much to our amusement, among those with whom I trained for ordination (some thirty years ago):

The Perfect Minister preaches for exactly 15 minutes; he condemns sin but never upsets anyone. He works from 8.00 am until midnight. He is a good caretaker. He receives about £50 net per week, wears good clothes, never looks shabby, keeps his library up to date, entertains regularly, drives a new car and gives about £2,500 to the poor and to the congregation. He is 28-30 years old and has approximately 25-30 years of parish experience. He has a burning desire to work with teenagers and spends all of his time with senior citizens.

The Perfect Minister smiles all the time with a straight face because he has a sense of humour that keeps him seriously dedicated at all times to his work. He makes daily calls on church families, shut-ins, and those in hospital; he spends all his time evangelising the unchurched and is always in his office when needed.

We think we have adopted a more realistic view of the sort of person we hope will be the new Rector, not least because folk are now much more aware that the work of the church is a huge collaborative effort of very many people – the ministry of the clergy of Stamford and Market Deeping working alongside our own ministry team of John Batty, Susanna Aldred, Les Baillie and Allan Crowson in maintaining our service pattern is perhaps the most visible example of this; but we are fortunate in having in our parishes very competent hardworking churchwardens and other officers, sidespeople, organists, bellringers, those who clean the churches and those who tend the churchyards, and who quietly undertake tasks that many people (sometimes even the clergy) don't always know about, who keep our churches running and developing. So we felt confident enough to conclude the advert with the assurance:

We are not expecting a one-person band: over the years we have learnt that doing God's work in the seven parishes is a team effort, and we now have people with a variety of skills who are keen, supportive and enthusiastic to pull together behind the right leader to spread God's word in our parishes.

So now as we look forward to finding the person God is calling to be our next Rector, we give thanks for everyone involved with the work of our seven churches, and pray that God will guide all those involved with the appointment process, so that we can soon welcome the person who will draw us ever closer to the risen Christ at Easter and throughout the year.

Yours in Christ

Martin

St Lawrence Tallington April Church Services: There are three services this month: 1st April at 10.30, the Easter Day Holy Communion celebrated by the Revd John Batty, the 8th which is Evening Prayer at 6 pm and finally on the 22nd a service of Holy Communion at 10.30.

The Mothering Sunday service on 11th March was well attended by a joint congregation from Uffington and Tallington. There were about 50 people, including children, in the congregation and the children presented posies to their mothers and grandmothers. Uffington adults and children made up the majority of the congregation and we all enjoyed the refreshments at the end of the service. Not a biscuit was left! The Revd Canon Steve Simcox led what could well be described as an interesting and 'interactive' service with both children and adults taking an impromptu part in the service. Grateful thanks go to the ladies who made the posies, Anne Knox, Val Sorrell and Millie Tilson and to the helping hands who prepared the refreshments.

St Lawrence Church Annual General Meeting (AGM): The AGM of St Lawrence Church is to be held in the Church on 18th April at 7 pm. The AGM is open to all. The calling notice and Agenda are posted on the Church notice board.
