WILDLIFE & GARDENING IN JANUARY

January is the month for New Year resolutions, and we have a suggestion that you might like to consider....

The Times newspaper had 4 charities benefitting from their 2015 Christmas Appeal, and one of them was the British Hedgehog Preservation Society. The hedgehog – “a ubiquitous snuffling presence in British gardens” appearing in heraldry, Shakespeare and Beatrix Potter – is no longer common or found everywhere. It has been estimated that there were about 30 million hedgehogs in the UK in 1950, but that number has plummeted to about a million now, and certainly dropped by a half, or possibly two thirds, since 2000.

No-one is quite sure why we have lost so many. It could be due to road kill, but also to loss of habitat, particularly of hedgerows. One of the consequences of losing ideal habitat, and habitat that joins up, is that populations of hedgehogs become separated and isolated, leading to in-breeding, and being vulnerable to local destructive factors – they just have nowhere to go. But we can help! And this is where a New Year Resolution comes in - how about us trying to look after our local hedgehogs? We can all do things in our garden that can help, such as:

- Cutting small holes in the bottom of fences to allow hedgehogs to easily roam between gardens;
- Keep rotting logs by the compost to provide beetles for them to eat;
- Mow the grass – or areas of the lawn – less often, and provide scrubby areas, hedgerows, fallen leaves for cover and foraging;
- Ensure that your pond has at least one area where a hedgehog can climb out – they can't get out of a pond with vertical sides and will just drown – and provide a slope or steps or rocks that they can use;
- Provide logs or ramps in the bottom of cattle grids so that hedgehogs can escape.
- Good habitat for hedgehogs is great for other wildlife too – and hedgehogs are great friends of gardeners, as they LOVE eating snails and slugs!

Wishing you a happy 2016!

Donna Radley and Tim Barfield

A VIEW FROM THE CURATE'S HOUSE

By the time you read this the festive season may be over and we will have entered into 2016. Even though Christmas is a busy time for us, clergy, I never get tired of this wonderful season. For me, one of the joys of Christmas is seeing the excitement of the younger children when they show everyone the presents they have received from Father Christmas. It is wonderful to see the joy on the faces of the children as they explain what their toys do. Then after all the hustle and bustle of Christmas we immediately start preparing for the New Year and the celebrations continue. Then once New Year's Day has passed, we reluctantly return to the normal things of family and working life.

But in January we also enter the period of Epiphany when we remember the Wise Men coming from afar to worship the baby Jesus. This time of Epiphany allows us to continue to celebrate the greatest gift of all, the birth of God's Son. The story of the Wise Men coming from foreign countries to worship the newborn King is an indication that the coming of God's Son is for every one of us, irrespective of where we were born. Christ came and lived among us and shared the joys and concerns of ordinary people like us. He still shares our joys and concerns and his love for us never falters.

We will perhaps have made some New Year resolutions about getting fitter, losing weight, taking up a hobby etc. and we might even manage to keep these resolutions in the weeks and months ahead. Can I encourage you, however, to also make a resolution to find time to reflect on God's love for you personally and his love for all humankind? By reflecting on God's love we will find ourselves reflecting God's love for others in all that we do and say.

Before Christmas we ran one of the Pilgrim courses and those who attended felt that it challenged them to think more deeply about what they believed and how that impacted on their lives. We will be running another couple of Pilgrim courses in January/February, one meeting in the daytime and another in the evening for six weeks. Perhaps you might want to make one of your New Year's resolutions a commitment to join one of the Pilgrim courses to think more about Jesus and his place in your life.

In closing, I would like to wish you all a very happy and prosperous new year.

Every blessing

Rev Mark

BRACEBOROUGH

Holy Communion, Sunday 3rd January at 9am, St Margaret's Church - Please come along and join us. Everyone welcome.

Poppy Appeal. Sincere thanks to Sue King for all her efforts in collecting £157 from the village for this year's Poppy Appeal, and thanks to all those who supported the collection with their donations.

Auction of Promises. The auction held last month raised almost £1300 to be shared between the Village Hall Committee (towards the new heating project) and Church (towards the Bell Tower project). Many thanks to all those who generously donated the lots, those who bid for, & purchased them, and to James, Keith and Jason for organising so much for the evening.

Update on Bell Tower Refurbishment. The first stage of this project has now been successfully completed. All the removal of waste, cleaning, repairing flooring, checking louvre windows, refurbishing the main bell frame and bell wheels has all been done. We are now raising funds and awaiting the outcome of grant aid applications in order to carry out the wood preservation phase of the works.

Help design a new Altar Frontal for St Margaret's. We are asking again, folks, because we need help, advice and ideas please. Any designers, embroiderers, seamstresses and/or anyone remotely interested or able to contribute in any way are invited to put forward suggestions for the design and preparation of a new church altar frontal. Perhaps you are on a design course at school, college or university? Please let us have your ideas and advice. Our current frontal is the only one we have & has been in service for rather a long time. Here is an opportunity to help make church even more welcoming & to make a personal contribution yourself. Contact Lyn on 561153.

Sunday 28 February 2016 – 'Locust Honey String Band' in concert at the Village Hall. Hailing from the very heart of the USA's Blue Ridge Mountains these 3 young ladies play kick up a storm playing bluegrass & Appalachian music. This is one of the band's very few visits to the UK, so we are privileged to have secured them. Reserve your tickets now, with James on 560417.

Fly The Flag. It costs just £5 to fly the flag to celebrate a birthday, anniversary or any other memorable or special event. Please contact James or Hazel.

Mark your special date by sponsoring either the Union Jack or St George's flag, and make a £5 donation to Church funds. Contact David & Gail Genever or Graham Creedy (481084).

Uffington WI. How did he do that? Uffington WI members were suitably amazed when professional magician Keith Downes gave a show at their Christmas meeting in the village hall. Mr Downes, from Deeping St James, gave up a job in teaching to follow his boyhood hobby of conjuring full-time. His baffling tricks were further enlivened by an amusing glimpse into the tricky world of entertaining at children's parties! The evening began with a group photograph of members taken to celebrate the WI Centenary in 2015. Later there were mince pies and wine (kindly contributed by Barbara Smith), and the traditional Christmas 'Secret Santa' bran tub. At the business meeting earlier, members were reminded that 2016 subscriptions of £37.50 will be due at the February meeting. The branch has been joined by two new members from Tallington, and also has members who live in Stamford. Alison Dodsworth will be the Uffington delegate to the Spring Council meeting at Springfields, Spalding on March 8, when the speaker will be freelance weather forecaster John Ketley. Members of the South Lincs Federation of WIs have been invited to produce a collection of their memories of the 2015 Centenary, A Year To Remember, in writing or image. The Federation is also offering the chance to go on a four-day WI holiday to the Cotswolds in July. The competition for a winter posy was won by 1 Alison Dodsworth and 2 Brenda Francis. There is no official WI meeting at Uffington in January, but an informal fish and chip supper is being organised for anyone who wants to go.

WILSTHORPE

The next Service at St Faith's is Holy Communion at 10.30am on Sunday 3rd January 2016. The service will be taken by the Rev Mark Thomson. Please do come along and join us, where you will be made most welcome.

The Carol Service was on Wednesday 24th December [Christmas Eve!] at 3pm, followed by mulled wine and mince pies. As this write up had to be submitted before the service we hope that it was enjoyed by all who attended and that everybody had a Joyful, Happy Christmas.

2015 was a special year for St Faith's – the 300th anniversary of the present building. The Bishop of Lincoln led the service on the 11th October to mark the occasion. An exhibition was held in the church with photographs, newspaper cuttings and stories showing the history of Wilsthorpe, some of its past and present residents and the church. The exhibition was originally intended to be on display for the month of October but was so well attended and due to popular demand was extended to the end of November.

At the time of writing, no events have yet been arranged for 2016 so any ideas for fund raising, social get togethers, offers to arrange events etc., would be most appreciated. Please contact either Rita at Wilsthorpe Cottage or Susan at Corner Cottage.

Wishing everybody a Peaceful, Happy and Healthy New Year.

2016 Talks at Uffington Village Hall

Saturday 23 January

History of Crowland and the Abbey.
Professor Michael Chisholm.
Discover the regional importance and dominance of this little known ancient abbey in this illustrated talk.

King Richard III, his life and times including the Greyfriars dig.
Sally Henshaw's talk will add to what we already know about King Richard from the film of his discovery in Leicester.

Saturday 19 March

Admission £10 which supports the upkeep of the village hall and funds replacing the sheds. Includes tea, delicious home made cakes and excellent company.
Talks start at 2.30pm. Raffle.
Contact Michael Crowe (01780 762490) or Vanessa Kimberley (01780 239463) for information on booking these popular and informative afternoons in Uffington.

GREATFORD

Church Flowers: Bridget Everitt

Church Cleaning: Cazz Anders and Sarah Rodriguez

Church Services: The services – which everyone is most welcome to attend – are:
10th January: Holy Communion at 9:00am & 24th January: Morning Prayer at 9am;

31st January: Holy Communion for whole of Uffington Group at 10:30am: preacher and celebrant the Archdeacon of Boston, the Venerable Dr Justine Allain Chapman. During the service she will also dedicate the new “Becket Window.”

Becket Window: After Archdeacon Justine has dedicated the new window on 31st January, its designer, Helen Whittaker will give a talk on the stained glass, describing how the brief that she was given was translated into the design, and the technical process of bringing together many colours in various types of glass. The Church is immensely grateful for the generous gift which made new window possible and privileged to have the fine window commemorating its patron saint (St Thomas Becket) designed by such a nationally renowned figure. We are delighted that she will be coming to talk about the work, and everyone is invited to join in this event.

Bell Ringing: Greatford practice night Wednesday 20th January. A peal was rung on Saturday 5th December and was dedicated to the 80th birthday of George Aylett.

Poppy appeal: the collection in the village raised £182.69 – with thanks to all who contributed and to Stephen and Kate Armstrong for organising it.

Carlby & District WI: The members enjoyed a Christmas party on Tuesday 8th December at Carlby Village Hall. There is no meeting in January. New Members and visitors are always welcome. For further information please telephone 01778 590180.

Mobile Library: The van will call at Greatford opposite the phone box on Mondays 25th January and 22nd February from 12:00noon to 12:30pm.

Flying the Flag: Mark any special event by having the Union Flag or St George's Flag flown at the Village Hall (for a contribution to Village Hall Funds) or outside the Church (in aid of Church Funds). Please contact Cyril Webb on 560437 in either case.

Bin Collections (after the holiday disruption): Black bin on Saturday 2nd January; Silver bin on Friday 8th January; Green Bin on Wednesday 13th January.
