WILDLIFE & GARDENING IN JUNE

Roses must one of our best-loved garden plants. If you grow them, then what you certainly do not want to see is your prize specimens affected by Black spot. This is a disease especially prevalent in wet summers, and is caused by a fungus with the Latin name Diplocarpon rosae. It shows itself as purple-black blotches on leaves and stems. As the disease progresses the leaves turn yellow and drop prematurely. In bad cases, then all of the leaves may be lost and the plant can be severely weakened. There are several 'non-chemical' things you can do to try and prevent the incidence or reduce the severity of this disease:

- (i) Ensure your plants have good ventilation. This can be achieved by annual pruning, for example – for bush roses during early spring, climbers during autumn/winter, ramblers after summer flowering. Standard practice for pruning bush roses is to obtain a goblet shape, with an open centre to help air movement and reduce infection of the leaves by fungal spores. In addition, make sure that you do not plant your roses too close together, and that you do not have lots of herbaceous plants around them.
- (ii) When watering, try and direct your hose or watering can to the base of the rose, to avoid wetting the leaves. Also carry out watering first thing in the morning, to allow any splashes on the leaves to dry out.
- (iii) Collect any fallen infected leaves, as soon as they have fallen. In an autumn/winter tidy up, ensure that all fallen dead leaves are removed, as the fungus can overwinter in the soil. Burn all infected leaves, but do not use them for compost or you will spread the disease.
- (iv) Ensure your roses are kept healthy by suitable feeding, and use of organic material such as mulching near the stems with well-rotted farmyard manure (which will conserve soil moisture and reduce the need for watering). Plant roses in the best location, with well prepared soil, and a good amount of sunlight.

You can buy new varieties of rose that are bred to be resistant to Black spot. Unfortunately new strains of the disease are continually developing so resistance may be relatively short lived. In spite of all this, do enjoy your roses! Tim and Donna

The Rectory, Uffington

Dear All

You may have noticed that some of the sets of initials labelling services in the chart on the middle pages have changed. FS has become AAW – Family Services have turned into All Age Worship.

The services themselves are still services which welcome everyone – they're for the whole church family (that's why they were called Family Services in the first place). When we baptise children or adults we welcome them into the family of the church, and we quite often talk about the church family - it's an image that speaks of connection and closeness – or at least, it can be. For some people, though, it's a bit more problematical – talking about church and family makes some people feel excluded.

Whether it's called a Family Service or All Age Worship, it's a service for everyone, whatever their age – but sometimes it's understood as meaning for nuclear families, parents and small children, so someone who doesn't have children, or whose children grew up long ago, might think that service isn't for them – just as people who do have young children sometimes think that 'ordinary' services aren't for them. I think the real problem is that we're often not sure of our welcome – and that can apply to any service. We think that church services are really aimed at someone else – those with children, those without, those who are already full members, people who believe really strongly, people who don't have doubts or questions about God, faith and the church, people who belong. Anyone except us.

All our services are open to anyone who would like to come. If you're not used to coming to church, it takes courage to come along for the first time – but you are always invited, always welcome. More than that, you have a right to come to church – the Church of England is not a 'members only' club, it's open to all. It's there for children and adults, those who live alone and those in relationships, people whose faith is strong and people who aren't sure what they believe. You can come alone, with a friend, with your family, you can even ask if someone who already comes to church can collect you; you can come for a special occasion, because you feel like it, because you're in trouble and need someone to talk to, because you want to sing hymns, to pray in company, or just to try something new – God welcomes us all, and we can welcome one another. The family of the church is something we can all be part of.

Yours,

Carolyn Kennedy.

GREATFORD

Church Flowers: Lois Webb

Church Cleaning: Bridget Everitt and Popsy Wells

Church Services: The Annual Meeting in March confirmed that the current pattern of services would be continued in 2015. The services in June are therefore:

Holy Communion on Sunday 14th June at 9:00am; All Age Worship on 28th June at 9:00am.

We were pleased to have Mark Thomson taking our services in May – do come along and meet him on 14th and/or 28th June.

Bell ringing: Greatford practice night – Wednesday 17th June from 7:30pm. The bells were rung at Greatford on Saturday 9th May to commemorate 70 years since VE DAY 1945. We have some visiting ringers on June 20th from 11:15 for about an hour.

Carlby & District WI: At the meeting held on 12th May Julie Bell and her Circle Dancing were a great success and everyone joined in for a happy evening. The next meeting will be held in BRACEBOROUGH Village Hall on Tuesday 9th June at 7:30pm. The talk will be 'Isaac Newton – His Life and Character' to be given by Robert and Margaret Senior from Woolsthorpe Manor. New Members and visitors are always welcome. For information please phone 01778 590180.

Greatford Village Fete (Saturday, 12th September): The ever-popular Greatford Fete will add a Produce Show to proceedings for the first time this year. Categories for the show, which will take place in the Village Hall before the fete starts, include Best Home-Made Jam or Chutney; Longest Cucumber; Best Tomatoes; Best Sponge Cake; Funniest Vegetable); Loveliest Lettuce; and Children's Miniature Garden. More details about how to enter the Produce Show will follow in Towers & Spires, and please address any enquiries to Cazz Anders (cazzanders@aol.co.uk). The Fete itself will again include stalls, games, refreshments and music for a fabulous afternoon of entertainment. Volunteers are always very welcome, and if you would like to help, please contact Jonathan Manning on 01778 560506.

Mobile Library: The van will call at Greatford opposite the phone box on Mondays 15th June and 13th July from 12noon to 12:30pm.

Greatford Parish Council: The Parish Councillors elected (unopposed) on 7th May for the next four years are: George Aylett, Nigel Ashby, Jon Workman and Ibis Channell. Barry Baker and Lois Webb having both been Parish Councillors for over 20 years did not stand for re-election, and we thank them for their work for the village for such a long time. We also thank Ibis Channell for her dedicated work representing the interests of our village and Ward for the past 16 years on the District Council, and commiserate with her on not be re-elected following the redrawing of the ward boundaries.

Cazz Anders would like to thank everyone for all the love, thoughts and prayers during her dad's final illness and most especially for the kindness shown by everyone since his death.

CASEWICK WARD

BRACEBOROUGH & WILSTHORPE PARISH COUNCIL

The Annual General Meeting and Parish Council Meeting took place at Braceborough & Wilsthorpe Village Hall on 11th May with two members of the public in attendance.

Cllr Dave Kentish was elected as Chairman, the 2014-15 council accounts were approved and it was agreed that the community cleaner's hours would increase from 8 hours to 8.5 hours per month. The Parish Council Meeting followed the AGM.

The overhanging bramble at Ivy Farm House near the Village Hall was still causing a problem. The presentation on Banthorpe/Greatford Level Crossing was cancelled last minute by Network Rail. The Parish Council felt that to meet after the extended deadline of 2nd June had closed was not acceptable. It was agreed that the Council would write another letter of objection to the closure. The clerk reported that various highways issues had been reported since the last meeting.

Councillors agreed to pay a grant of £280.00 each for maintenance of the church yards, £234.45 to Printmarshall, the outstanding amount for the Parish Plan (which will be reviewed in 2025) and £187.89 for Council Insurance. All Councillors were given dispensation to be able to discuss the setting of the precept for the duration of this council.

There were no objections to the erection of a single storey rear extension at Shortacre, Braceborough.

C.Cllr Martin Trollope-Bellew reported that the County Council was expecting a decision from the Boundary Commission regarding the number of Councillors. He also said that there were Review Groups looking into Unitary Authorities, Homes to School Transport and Scrutiny.

The date for the next meeting is Monday 8th June at St Faith's Church, Wilsthorpe at 7.30pm. All welcome.

For more information on the Parish Council please go to

RECTOR'S HEALTH UPDATE

Well, it's taken a long time, but things seem to be improving at last. I've seen a new specialist, who thinks he knows what the trouble is, and I'm off to have an operation.

This means that, all being well (no last-minute postponement!), I will be off work from the 10th June until at least the end of July. For help, baptism or wedding bookings, or anything else during that time, please contact the Revd. Mark Thomson on 01778 348394 (NB the number went into the front cover last month as a Stamford number, but it's definitely 01778).

Many thanks again to all who have supported me while I have been ill, and I hope very much to be back to normal by the autumn.

Church Flowers

7th June – Mrs Gray
14th/21st – Mrs B Smith
28th – Mrs I Cornwell

200 Club Winners in April: No 62 Mrs Rosemary Berridge £20: No 51 Mrs Amy Warren £10.

Social Evenings: The Potato evening in April was well attended with a good choice of fillings for the potatoes which were much enjoyed.

It has been brought to the attention of the Committee that younger families would like to come to the Socials if only they started earlier. The annual Strawberries and Cream with Pimms event had already been moved to Saturday 27th June starting at 4.00 pm in an attempt to encourage young families to come. To make this more attractive for children games and races, lasting approximately one hour, in the Playing Field are being organized. Please come along and bring a picnic, or food to put on the BBQs (from 5.00 pm) if you would like. To keep the area safe please only bring plastic/paper plates and glasses. If this event is successful more can be arranged this Summer but the Committee must ask for volunteers to help organize such events. We are very fortunate to have a Petanque Court which is underused so the July event on Friday 31 July will be a Petanque Competition starting at 5.00 pm. Again the BBQs will be available. Start to organize your teams now! Watch out for the posters and flyers to remind you of the events.

Table Tennis: Congratulations must go to our Table Tennis Team who won the Ketco Cup by beating the Nomads in the Final.

Mobile Library Service: The Mobile Library will be in Church Lane between 11.15 am and 11.45 am on Monday 15th June.

Post Office: Please remember that the Post Office is open every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon between 2.00 pm and 4.00 pm in the Village Hall. A notice in the Village Hall shows the many services which are offered. This is another service which hopefully we shall never lose but it must be used to make it viable whilst producing a much valued rent towards the upkeep of the Village Hall and Playing Field.

Wi-Fi: Although this service has been available for some months now at the Village Hall and in the surrounding area not many people seem to be using it. Perhaps you did not know it was available to all residents who can log on as a Village Hall Guest.

The Parish Council: The next Parish Council meeting will be held in the Village Hall on Tuesday 14th July at 7.30 pm. All residents are welcome to attend this meeting.

Uffington Walk and Talk - all welcome. The walk planned for Friday 12th June is "Shacklewell" (Rutland Water book -walk no 9) Walk from Empingham to Shacklewell, across the A606 and back to Empingham via New Wood- approx. 6.25 miles. Park in Empingham opposite the church, away from the shops. Meet 9.55am.

Uffington Village Hall. I would like to say a very big "Thank You" to the following volunteers for all their hard work and support they gave over the Scarecrow Weekend working in the Hall on catering alongside me and Jayne. Also those that helped set up and loan us equipment.

Jayne Hartley, Vanessa & Nick Kimberley, Kate Genever, Kim Cozens, Mark, Eden & Heber Hassall, Carol & Bob Feetham, Pam Dean, Helen Steward, David Coney & Lindsey, Heather & Abigail Sharpe, Rachael Meadows, Amanda Remedios, Ingrid Giles & her two sons Reuben, Isaac, Cathy Lewis & her dad Tom, Lorraine Thurston, Barrie & Chris Church, Lesley Coomes, Nessa Winters & her mum.

"Thank You" to everyone that supplied the village hall with cakes.

I also want to say a big "Thank You" to Vanessa & Nick Kimberley and Fergus Winters for organising and running the Vinyl Stall at the UVH garden, a great idea.

Many thanks. Anita Hassall. UVH Chair.

Uffington Play Area. During the next few months the equipment for the Play Area in Bertie Lane is to be installed and it is proposed that it should be opened, at a date to be arranged, by a child of primary school age living in the parish of Uffington. Parents and carers are to be asked to put their child's/children's names forward to perform this task.

The Sunday Riders London To Brighton Bike Ride. Phil Archer and Barrie Brown will be cycling away from their usual routes on Sunday 21st June. They are taking part along with 28,000 other cyclists in the 40th London to Brighton Bike ride. This is over a distance of 54 miles and finishes with a one mile climb before descending in to Brighton. The event is organised by and raises funds for the British Heart Foundation. We would be pleased to accept any donations to this very important charity and have created a fund raising page with "My Donate" which is a BT based website that passes the whole of the donation to the nominated charity. You can find our page at "My Donate", under "sponsor a fund raiser" type in Barrie Brown and you will find our fundraising Page. We will of course accept donations in person. – Barrie and Phil.

Uffington WI. 'Living With Alpacas' was the title of Rachel Shoon's talk at Uffington WI's May meeting – and there clearly isn't a dull moment living with the herd she and her husband run at Belmesthorpe, near Stamford. The couple made a conscious decision some years ago to create a simpler lifestyle for themselves in the countryside, believing, as Rachel said, that '21st century society is moving too fast for its own good'. They practise animal homeopathy and reiki, committing themselves to giving their animals the best life they can. Their 29-strong herd of alpacas has been growing steadily and produces a luxury fibre which is light, soft and warm. It contains no lanolin to irritate the skin, making it suitable for babies and allergy sufferers. Rachel brought along her spinning wheel, together with examples of garments knitted from alpaca fleece, and demonstrated carding and spinning. She was thanked by Margaret Walker. After the talk, the 2014-15 Competition Cup was presented to Brenda Francis, and President Maggie Carter revealed that the WI cake stall at the Uffington Scarecrow Festival the previous weekend had raised £160. She thanked members who made cakes and gave up their time to run the stall, and thanked Sheila Croft for making the WI's scarecrow. The programmes for the coming year were distributed: future talks will include the history of Stamford Racecourse, trekking in Nepal, quilting, lace-making, and conjuring tricks. The branch has been asked to contribute craft work and floristry to the South Lincs Federation WI Centenary exhibition at Sleaford in September. It plans to visit Jordan's Mill in Bedfordshire in June. Carole Chapman read out the NFWI's 2015 Resolution, to be debated at the WI's annual meeting in London on June 4: 'That this meeting calls on HM Government to remove the distinction between nursing care and personal care in the assessment of the needs of individuals, in order to advance health and wellbeing'. With only hours to go before the General Election, and the possibility of political change, the branch decided to leave the option to back the move open to its delegate on the day. Maggie Carter gave a report on the painting course she and Sheila Croft had attended at the WI's Denman College, using the branch's bursary – and produced the framed results (eat your heart out, Tracey Emin!). The Flower of The Month competition was won by 1 Alison Dodsworth, 2 Brenda Francis and 3 Chris Redfern. The next meeting is on June 3rd when Phil Rudkin will give a presentation on Wildlife Through The Year.

BRACEBOROUGH

Farewell to Jean. We all felt a great sadness as the village said 'goodbye' to Jean at the memorial service held in her memory on 1 May. Jean was a lively, vibrant character who touched many people's lives during her life in Braceborough. We shall miss her, but will remember with fondness and amusement the many good times we were privileged to share with her. Farewell good friend.

We are now actively gathering information, costs and advice to explore how we can move the work forward to get our bells and bell tower back into a more serviceable condition. Will keep you posted!

Saturday 2nd May Churchyard Maintenance morning at St Margaret's Church. Thank you to all those who helped carry out the annual spring maintenance work on the church building and churchyard on Saturday 2nd May. Lots of essential checks and works were successfully completed.

Saturday 18th July Bracefest 2015 – The Battle of The Bands!! Our third Bracefest is now approaching. Make a note of the date & tell your family and friends. This is an event not to be missed.
