WILDLIFE & GARDENING IN NOVEMBER

From now until the end of December - when deciduous plants have lost their leaves - is the time to take hardwood cuttings. This is a very effective way to propagate most deciduous shrubs (e.g. dogwood, forsythia, buddleia, fig, rose), trees (e.g. plane, willow) many climbers (e.g. honeysuckle, Virginia creeper) and some evergreens (e.g. holly).

For taking cuttings use healthy stems that have been growing during the year. Remove the top soft part of the stem and discard. Cuttings can be taken from the remainder of the stem and should be about 15 to 30 centimetres long, and the thickness of a pencil. Make a sloping cut immediately above the bud at the top of your cutting. This should slope away from the bud, so that it sheds water away. At the lower end of the cutting, make a clean straight cut below a bud. This difference in cuts also has the benefit of showing which is the top and bottom of your cutting.

Dip the lower end of the cutting into hormone rooting powder. This encourages the formation of roots and should prevent fungal infection. Cuttings should be planted to about two thirds of their length into a trench into which has been dug garden compost or other organic material. You can now forget about your cuttings until springtime, when they should have rooted. Although rooting of hardwood cuttings is a relatively slow process it is usually successful. Rooted cuttings can be potted on during the summer, for growing on and eventual planting out.

In especially cold winters, cuttings are best planted into the ground in a cold frame, or in pots or trays in an unheated greenhouse. Tim and Donna

Dear All

When I was a university chaplain, before moving to Uffington, I had a German Lutheran colleague - a succession of them, in fact, generally spending a year seconded to us by the Bavarian Lutheran church. It was a great experience, and we learnt a lot, not only about one another but about ourselves, as we thought about things we'd always taken for granted. One Lutheran found it increasingly hard, during her year, to cope with the Church of England's membership criteria - specifically, the lack of them. She was used to a church with a definite list of members, committed to at least some degree - and all paying church tax. I remember her complaining piteously that the Church of England had such fuzzy edges, she couldn't tell who was in and who was out. It made me realise that it's one of the things I value tremendously about the good old CofE - all that you need for membership is baptism, and other than that there's no list of rules, nothing to sign, no test to pass. In fact, it's even wider than that, because while membership requires baptism, anyone, baptised or not, can come to church, and call upon the services of the clergy - we don't ask to see a certificate before taking a funeral, talking through a problem, or blessing a child, a home or a marriage. There are no strict boundaries.

It was after Sabine's comment that I renamed my 'Exploring Faith' group 'The Church with fuzzy edges', I liked the image so much. Not everyone is comfortable with fuzzy edges, though, and it seems that part of the problem behind the constantly recurring headlines about splits in the Anglican Communion is a desire by some people to define precisely who is in and who is out. Those making the definitions, of course, are in - gay bishops, it would seem, are very much out, as are those with more liberal views on a number of issues.

The question I keep coming back to is - what does God want from the church? Because surely the church has to be about trying to fulfill God's wishes, not our own. I had the same problem over the ordination of women - still not accepted throughout the Anglican communion, or even throughout the Church of England - if God doesn't want women priests, why do so many women feel called to serve as priests, and why when the church tests those callings does it accept them as true? And if God is calling women to serve, how can we refuse to let it happen?

It can be very easy to look around us and judge other people's commitment, and wonder how on earth they can count themselves as Christians. Sometimes we can be too easy on ourselves - and sometimes we judge ourselves harshly, too. But God calls all of us into the body of Christ, and doesn't always seem as picky as we might be about who is called into full-time ministry, either.

So I'll vote to keep the fuzzy edges, let as many people as possible be part of the church - and keep praying hard, to try to find out what God is asking us to do - God who has promised to send the Spirit to lead us into all truth, God whose church it actually is.

Yours in Christ,

Carolyn Kennedy.

BRACEBOROUGH

Well Done Clare! Once again Clare cycled to 9 churches in aid of the Old Lincs Churches Trust on Saturday 13 September. Each year Clare participates in the Ride & Stride, raising money for both the Trust and St Margaret's Church. At the time of going to press Clare was still receiving sponsorship monies so we are, as yet, unable to let you know how much she has raised. Many thanks, Clare, and congratulations from us all.

Harvest Festival Service & Harvest Supper. More than 40 people celebrated Harvest Thanksgiving 'with a difference' in the village hall on 2nd October. A short service, enthusiastically led by Mark, was followed by a harvest supper prepared and served by Pat and her ladies. Keith delivered a lively toast to the harvest, James dispensed various liquids from the bar, lots of people helped, even more had smiles on their faces and £300 was raised for church funds. A great community effort! Thank you to everyone who attended and contributed. Shame about the ipod controller!

Congratulations! James Williams awarded John Barker Trophy. For many years Lincolnshire community building committees were able to call upon the technical expertise of John Barker on building-related matters. Now, each year, Community Lincs makes 6 awards which recognise community building volunteers. These recognise and celebrate the work of these volunteers who give their time and effort to manage and maintain community buildings. This year, Braceborough's James Williams was nominated for the 'Unsung Hero' category for his behind the scenes work, such as regular maintenance, managing bookings, organising key holders etc. On Wednesday 24th September James attended the Community Lincs AGM in Washingborough and was presented with 2 awards – the Unsung Hero category AND the John Barker Trophy. James works tirelessly to help ensure our village hall and related community events run smoothly, efficiently and all within today's seemingly increasing legislation. He is always ably supported by his wife, Hazel, and two sons Alex and Marcus.

Congratulations James – and Team Williams – and thank you so very much for all your hard work and endeavours over the years. James, you are, indeed, Braceborough's Unsung Hero!

Holy Communion – Sunday 2nd November at 9am, St Margaret's Church. Everyone welcome. Please come along.

Flying the Flag. The Union flag was flown on 18 October to celebrate the arrival of Zachary, born to Lisa and Giles on Tuesday 14th. Mum and son both doing well, despite him arriving 5 weeks early. The Miracle Baby is here! Sponsors: Lyn & Malc, proud grandparents.

Friday 28th November, Braceborough Village Hall - Victor & Albert Pull a Couple of Crackers. Victor & Albert are dysfunctional twins who live in the cathedral city of Incester in the fair county of Incestershire. In this hilarious show Victor & Albert will take us through an A-Z of Christmas, an alphabet journey through global Christmas trends, including carols, Christmas songs and wicked entertainment. All executed with brilliant timing, extremely witty words and an ability to push the 'double-entendre' to its limit. These were the pick of the preview evening for the New Rural Touring Scheme and we are extremely fortunate to have them. Very Highly Recommended. Doors open 7.30, show starts at 8pm. Licensed bar. Tickets from James Williams on 1778 560417. Adults £10, children £5, family ticket (2+2) £25.

Dates for the Diary

Christmas Eve – Carol Service in church @ 6pm., followed by drinks in the village hall.

Uffington WI. Uffington WI held a buffet-style harvest supper at its October meeting in the village hall, catering arranged by the committee. Gammon and new potatoes with salads were topped off with apple pie and custard. The apple pies had been the subject of the night's competition – ten were submitted and it was won by Alison Dodsworth. The President, Maggie Carter, announced that Sheila Croft had been the winner of the draw for the branch's bursary to the WI's own educational establishment, Denman College, awarded every three years. Members were reminded that annual subscriptions would be due in February, and were going up from £34.70 to £36. Among forthcoming local WI social events is an invitation to a special showing of the film Saving Mr Banks, at Ripplingale Village Hall on October 21, £2.50 with tea and cake. The next meeting is on November 5, when the programme will be arranged by members. The competition will be for the greatest number of words that can be made up from the name 'Guy Fawkes'. 30th November St Andrew			Romans 10:12-18	Matthew 4:18-22
7th December 2 nd Sunday of Advent Year B	85:8-13	Isaiah 40:1-11	2 Peter 3:8-15a	Mark 1:1-8

There is a choice of colours in church this month - either green for the first three Sundays then white for Christ the King, and red for St. Andrew, or red for all five; Advent of course is purple (or blue). Year B in the lectionary actually begins on the 30th November, but as that's St. Andrew's Day, and we have a St. Andrew's Church at West Deeping, we're celebrating that rather than Advent Sunday.

BRACEBOROUGH & WILSTHORPE PARISH COUNCIL

The October meeting of the Parish Council was cancelled but Councillors have been busy on your behalf. Cllr Dave Kentish attended the Neighbourhood Police Panel in September and reported that Braceborough & Wilsthorpe have, on a couple of occasions, been visited by the Police to do speed checks. If you witness regular speeding offenders then please take their registration number and call 101 immediately, this information will then be notified to police in the area. The Parish Council has had its request for 30mph Passive Road Signs accepted by the Road Safety Partnership, the next step will be for County Council to grant a Licence to allow the signs to be erected in both villages. Other anti-social behavior, which you feel causes harassment, distress or alarm includes loud music, noisy revving of engines, handbrake turns etc., which should also be reported on 101. The Defibrillator has been placed in Wilsthorpe Church, for more information please contact Cllr James Shorrock. New kerbs have been placed at the corner of Braceborough Road, Wilsthorpe. Councillors are busy looking at the information received from the questionnaire circulated during the summer in preparation for the Parish Plan. The next Parish Council meeting will take place on Monday 3rd November at 7.30pm at Braceborough & Wilsthorpe Village Hall. All welcome. For more information on the Parish Council please go to <http://parishes.lincolnshire.gov.uk/BraceboroughandWilsthorpe>. Rosemary Woolley, Clerk to the Council

TRUESDALE WARD – NOVEMBER 2014

Dear Resident.

Kelham & I attended the meeting at Tallington Village Hall, with Nick Boles MP, to hear the discussions about the next step forward in regards to the proposed closure of Tallington Level Crossing. It was a pleasure to see that Tallington had support from residents from neighbouring villages. Kelham & I support the County Council that no houses should be demolished. CCTV Cameras which have been installed in problem locations around the district have shown to be a great help in deterring flytipping but dog fouling continues to be a problem. Environmental Officers will go to affected areas at any time of day if the person reporting the offence has a clear idea of when the offence is liable to take place; there is a fine of £75. SKDC in conjunction with Lloyds Bank run a Local Authority Mortgage Scheme, not to be confused with the Governments Right to Buy. To date the District has deposited £2million to help first time buyers onto the property ladder. For more information please contact the District Council or Lloyds Bank. If you have any problems relating to the District Council, please do not hesitate to contact either Rosemary Woolley 01778 560634 or Kelham Cooke 07940 187 426.

WILSTHORPE

Holy Communion is at 10.30am on Sunday 2nd November. Please do come along and join us, where you will be made most welcome.

Harvest Festival – This was held on Sunday 19th October – the church was beautifully decorated with an autumnal theme, depicting the colours of autumn and the produce for the season. There was also a large amount of dried foods donated which will be passed onto Bourne Food Bank. Thank you everybody for your kind generosity.

Carol Service – Wednesday 24th December [Christmas Eve!] at 3pm, followed by mulled wine and mince pies. More details for decorating the church will be in the December Towers & Spires.

UFFINGTON PARISH COUNCIL

Report from Parish Council Meeting held on Wednesday, 8th October, 2014 in the Village Hall. C.Cllr. M. Trollope-Bellew reported on the “Tallington By Pass”. There is still no decision on which route this By Pass will take, but which or if it is done it will be very expensive. Southern Route - £15 million, Northern Route £8-11 million the ABC/Dowmac route £12- 25 million. It has been agreed with Anglian Water that the “boggy area” on the grassy area at the rear of Lindsey Road can be dug up by the Parish Council to try to find the problem and then report back to them.

PCSO's have attended the school at drop off and pick up times to monitor the parking to try to make it better.

Cllr. Mulvaney had been approached by concerned parents asking for some sort of pedestrian crossing on the A1175 at the top of Casewick Lane to help the children crossing the road to catch the school bus. LCC Highways to be contacted.

There has been no decision on the new route of the Casewick – Barholm footpath when the crossing across the main line is closed.

Planning permission received for the Nursery on the Main Road

Refusal of planning permission for a shed at the Dovecote in Casewick.

The appeal has been dismissed for residential development at Toll Bar House, Uffington Road Stamford.

An application has been submitted for a terrace of three three bedroom houses on the land between West Hall Farm and 9 Main Road. The Parish Council objected to this on the same grounds as the previous application. The Parish Council reasons for objecting can be found on the Uffington Website under the heading of Minutes or contact the Clerk on 01780 763477.

Dist. Cllr. Woolley reported that in partnership with the Town Council the District will be holding a second Georgian Festival and there will be a Christmas Festival on Sunday, 30th November between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. culminating with the switching on of the Christmas lights.

C.Cllr. Trollope-Bellew reported that the four North, South, East & West Districts will become just two North and South and there will be a reduction in staff.

Highways be contacted regarding the poor state of the footpath between 14 Casewick Lane and the post box and also be asked when the piece of footpath outside the school gate on School Lane is going to be resurfaced as promised.

It was also agreed to write to Highways complaining about the confusing diversion signage due to Ryhall Road being closed.

Date of next meeting Wednesday, 19th November, 2014 at 8 p.m.

The next meeting will be in Carlby Village Hall at 7.30pm on Tuesday 11th November and will be a Members night. Members and visitors (from Carlby, Bourne, Thurlby, Wilsthorpe, Braceborough and Greatford) are always welcome. For further information please phone 01778 590180.

Greatford Fete: Many thanks to everyone who came along to Greatford Village Fete and to the committed team who organised the event. Once again the event's games, stalls, tea, cakes, bar, barbecue and live music proved to be hugely enjoyable, and the afternoon and evening raised just under £1000 to support the ongoing maintenance of the Village Hall. Special thanks are due to Steve Rigby at the Hare and Hounds for his very kind donation of a barrel of ale, which made a huge contribution to the fundraising effort.

Flood Risk-Reduction: The Flood Warden thanks the volunteer team on Saturday 11th October who cut up and cleared away the large fallen branches over the water course alongside Nos 6, 7 & 8 Greatford Gardens. It was good to achieve this while the conditions were still dry.

Flying the Flag: You can help to raise funds by having the Union Jack or the Flag of St George flown in honour of any special event. The Flags can be flown at the Village Hall in aid of Village Hall Funds or on the flagpole outside the Church in aid of Church Funds. Please contact Cyril Webb on 560437 in either case.

Each year, a group of local people form a choir in order to lead the worship at the carol service in Uffington Parish Church. Choir rehearsals take place on Wednesday evenings at Cophill School (by kind permission of the Teesdale family). New members are always very welcome. Rehearsals begin on Wednesday 19th November at 7.30pm, and the carol service will be in Uffington Parish Church on Sunday December 21st at 6pm. Tim would be absolutely delighted to welcome new choristers: further details may be obtained from David Genever on 01780 765005.
